

PRESS RELEASE

ADNIC Enters into Strategic Partnership with MSH INTERNATIONAL

Partnership Offers Enhanced Global Medical Insurance Network

Paris, 9 November, 2012: Abu Dhabi National Insurance Company (ADNIC), one of the leading and prominent insurers in the UAE, signed a global overseas medical claims administration agreement with MSH INTERNATIONAL, the first UAE based TPA entirely dedicated to managing personal health insurance for people living and working in the GCC and MENA regions, for their SHIFA international product and selected Medical Insurance products.

Through this strategic partnership one of the benefits ADNIC's global and SHIFA customers will enjoy is the ease of cashless medical claims administration throughout the region and, within a selected global network of healthcare providers when travelling. This arrangement ensures ADNIC customers maintain consistency of quality and efficient healthcare service whenever and wherever they are in the UAE, and while travelling abroad.

MSH INTERNATIONAL's healthcare network is one of the most extensive networks with over 750,000 healthcare providers on their panel spanning 194 countries.

Commenting on the partnership, Mr. Walid Sidani, CEO of ADNIC said, "At ADNIC we are committed to providing the best in class medical insurance to our customers, this is in line with our march towards achieving Perpetual Excellence at ADNIC."

He added, "This agreement with MSH INTERNATIONAL will further guarantee the protection of our customers and will offer our customers peace of mind in knowing that they will have seamless, health cover both in the UAE and internationally."

"We are delighted to partner with ADNIC. As a designer and manager of healthcare solutions this agreement marks our commitment to seamlessly manage the wellbeing of globally mobile employees and their families. Combined with MSH INTERNATIONAL's global healthcare network scale and reach, ADNIC's customers have the confidence of personalised health solutions, wherever, whenever,” added Brigitte Chemla, CEO, MSH INTERNATIONAL Dubai.

SHIFA is ADNIC’s unique international medical insurance product, offering global medical coverage on a direct billing basis through a network of international medical service providers.
